CASE NUMBER: 3:98-CR-00179-05-JWS

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, and considering provisions found in 18 U.S.C. § 3553, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Kenneth Gassman, is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 60 months. Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three years. Within 72 hours of release from custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime, shall not possess a firearm or illegal controlled substance, and shall comply with the standard conditions that are included in the judgment issued by the Court.

Additionally, as the offense occurred after the effective date of the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act on September 13, 1994, and the Court finds there is a risk of future substance abuse, the defendant shall refrain from the unlawful use of controlled substances and shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release on supervision and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed 12 tests per month, as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall also comply with the following special conditions:

1. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant as directed by the probation officer.
2. In addition to submitting to drug testing in accordance with the Violent Crime Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, the defendant shall participate in either or both inpatient or outpatient treatment programs approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse treatment, which program shall include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol. At the direction of the probation officer, the defendant may be required to pay for all or a portion of any treatment program.
3. The defendant shall submit to a warrantless search of person, residence, vehicle, personal effects, place of employment, and other property by a federal probation or pretrial services officer or other law enforcement officer, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or a violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation.
4. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other weapon.
